d 9.4.1803

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I was given your name by Edna Ash of the Ontario Historical Society in answer to a letter I wrote to her concerning my genealogy.

I am seeking data about my gr-gr-grandparents who immigrated to Kingston, Canada from England or Wales. I know they were living in Kingston in 1829 and lived there quite a few years. My grandfathers' name was Valentine Lucas and he was married to Sarah Perry Lucas. The names of their children were Nathaniel, Calvin, Dennie, Daniel, Martial, Ebenezer, Jane Ann, John R., Valentine S. I am especially interested in learning where they did immigrate from.

I am writing you in hopes that you might be able to direct me to some reference sources that might help me in my search. Possibly a history of Kingston might contain some biographical data that would mention my relatives.

I appreciate your time and help. Please notify me if a charge is involved if you are able to help me. I am enclosing a self-addressed envelope and hope to hear from you soon. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Gladys Loh.

Dear Madam:

Please refer to my letter of 7th inst. and your reply of 21st, relative to Grawton's Genealogy of the Loh Family, which you state is not in your genealogical library.

I feel that there has been a misunderstanding, as I have seen the book to which I refer on your shelves within the last six months. When I wrote my recent letter I could not remember the exact title, which may have caused confusion. The book is entitled "A History of My People and yours," by Rev. Claude M. McMillan.

I shall repeat my query, in the hope that you may be of assistance to me. It is James Loh, born 1768; died 1837; married Margaret Lohman, widow of Nathaniel Lohman.

Dennis Lucas, son of Nathaniel and Margaret, born 6 Feb., 1781, was baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church, Schaghticoke.

This Dennis accompanied his stepfather to Canada in 1793.

Is there record of Dennis Lucas, his wife and his children? If so, may I please have a list of children, with birth dates, and marriages, if possible?

I have availed myself of your generosity in the past, just as I hope that you will be equally generous at this time.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of October 7, I regret to report that we do not have a copy of the Lake genealogy which you suggested in your letter. Also our Lucas genealogy contains no information on the children of Dennis Lucas.

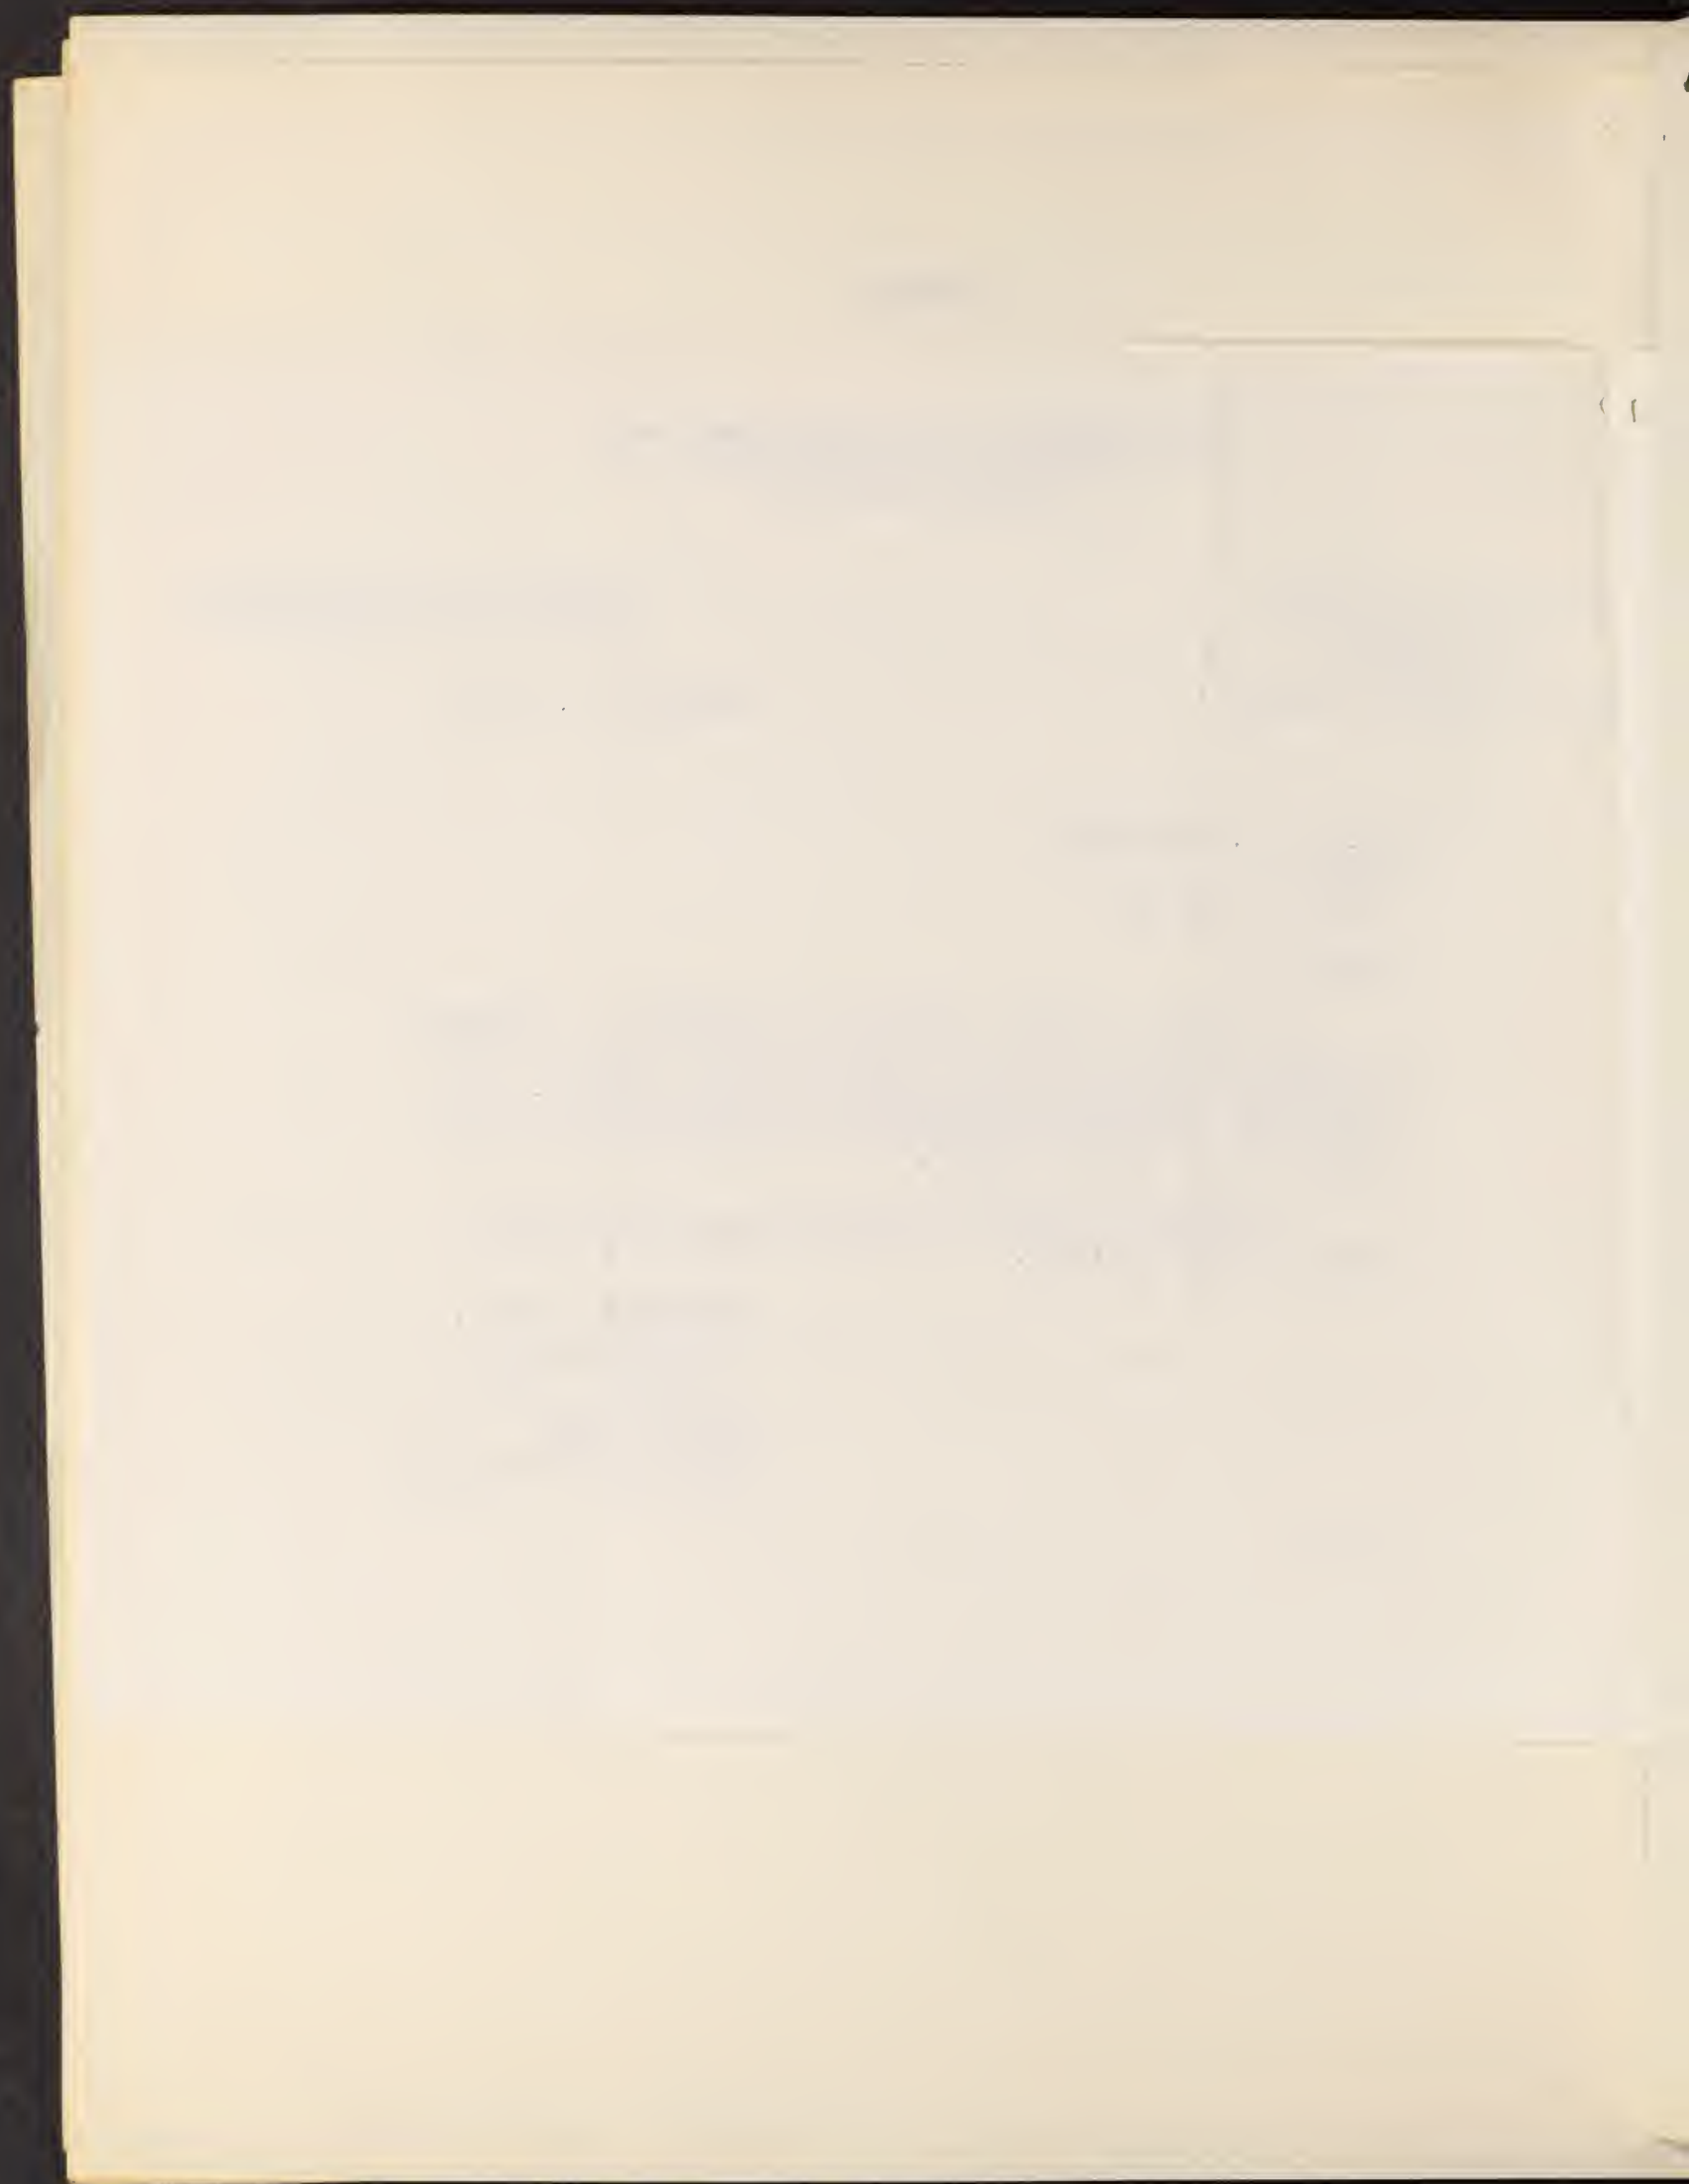

I regret to advise that we do not recommend family genealogists.

Sincerely yours,

Att. Genealogy Division.

Dear madam:

I have been informed that you have on your shelves a copy of Crampton's Genealogy of the LAKE Family. Such being the case, would it be possible for you to supply me, very briefly, with the following information?

James LAKE, born 1760; died 1839, married Margaret Hagerman, born 1756; died 1833, widow of Nathaniel LUCAS.

Nathaniel LUCAS and his wife, Margaret Hagerman, were parents of a son, Dennis, born 6 Feb., 1781, and baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church, Schaghticoke.

Nathaniel LUCAS died 10 Feb., 1781, four days after the birth of his son, Dennis.

Dennis LUCAS accompanied his mother and step-father when they emigrated to Canada in 1793.

My query is this: does the book have any information on the children of this Dennis LUCAS? If so, I should greatly appreciate their names, with birth, death and marriage dates.

At the same time, is it possible for you to give me the name of a responsible person in Albany who might do extensive search for me on occasion?

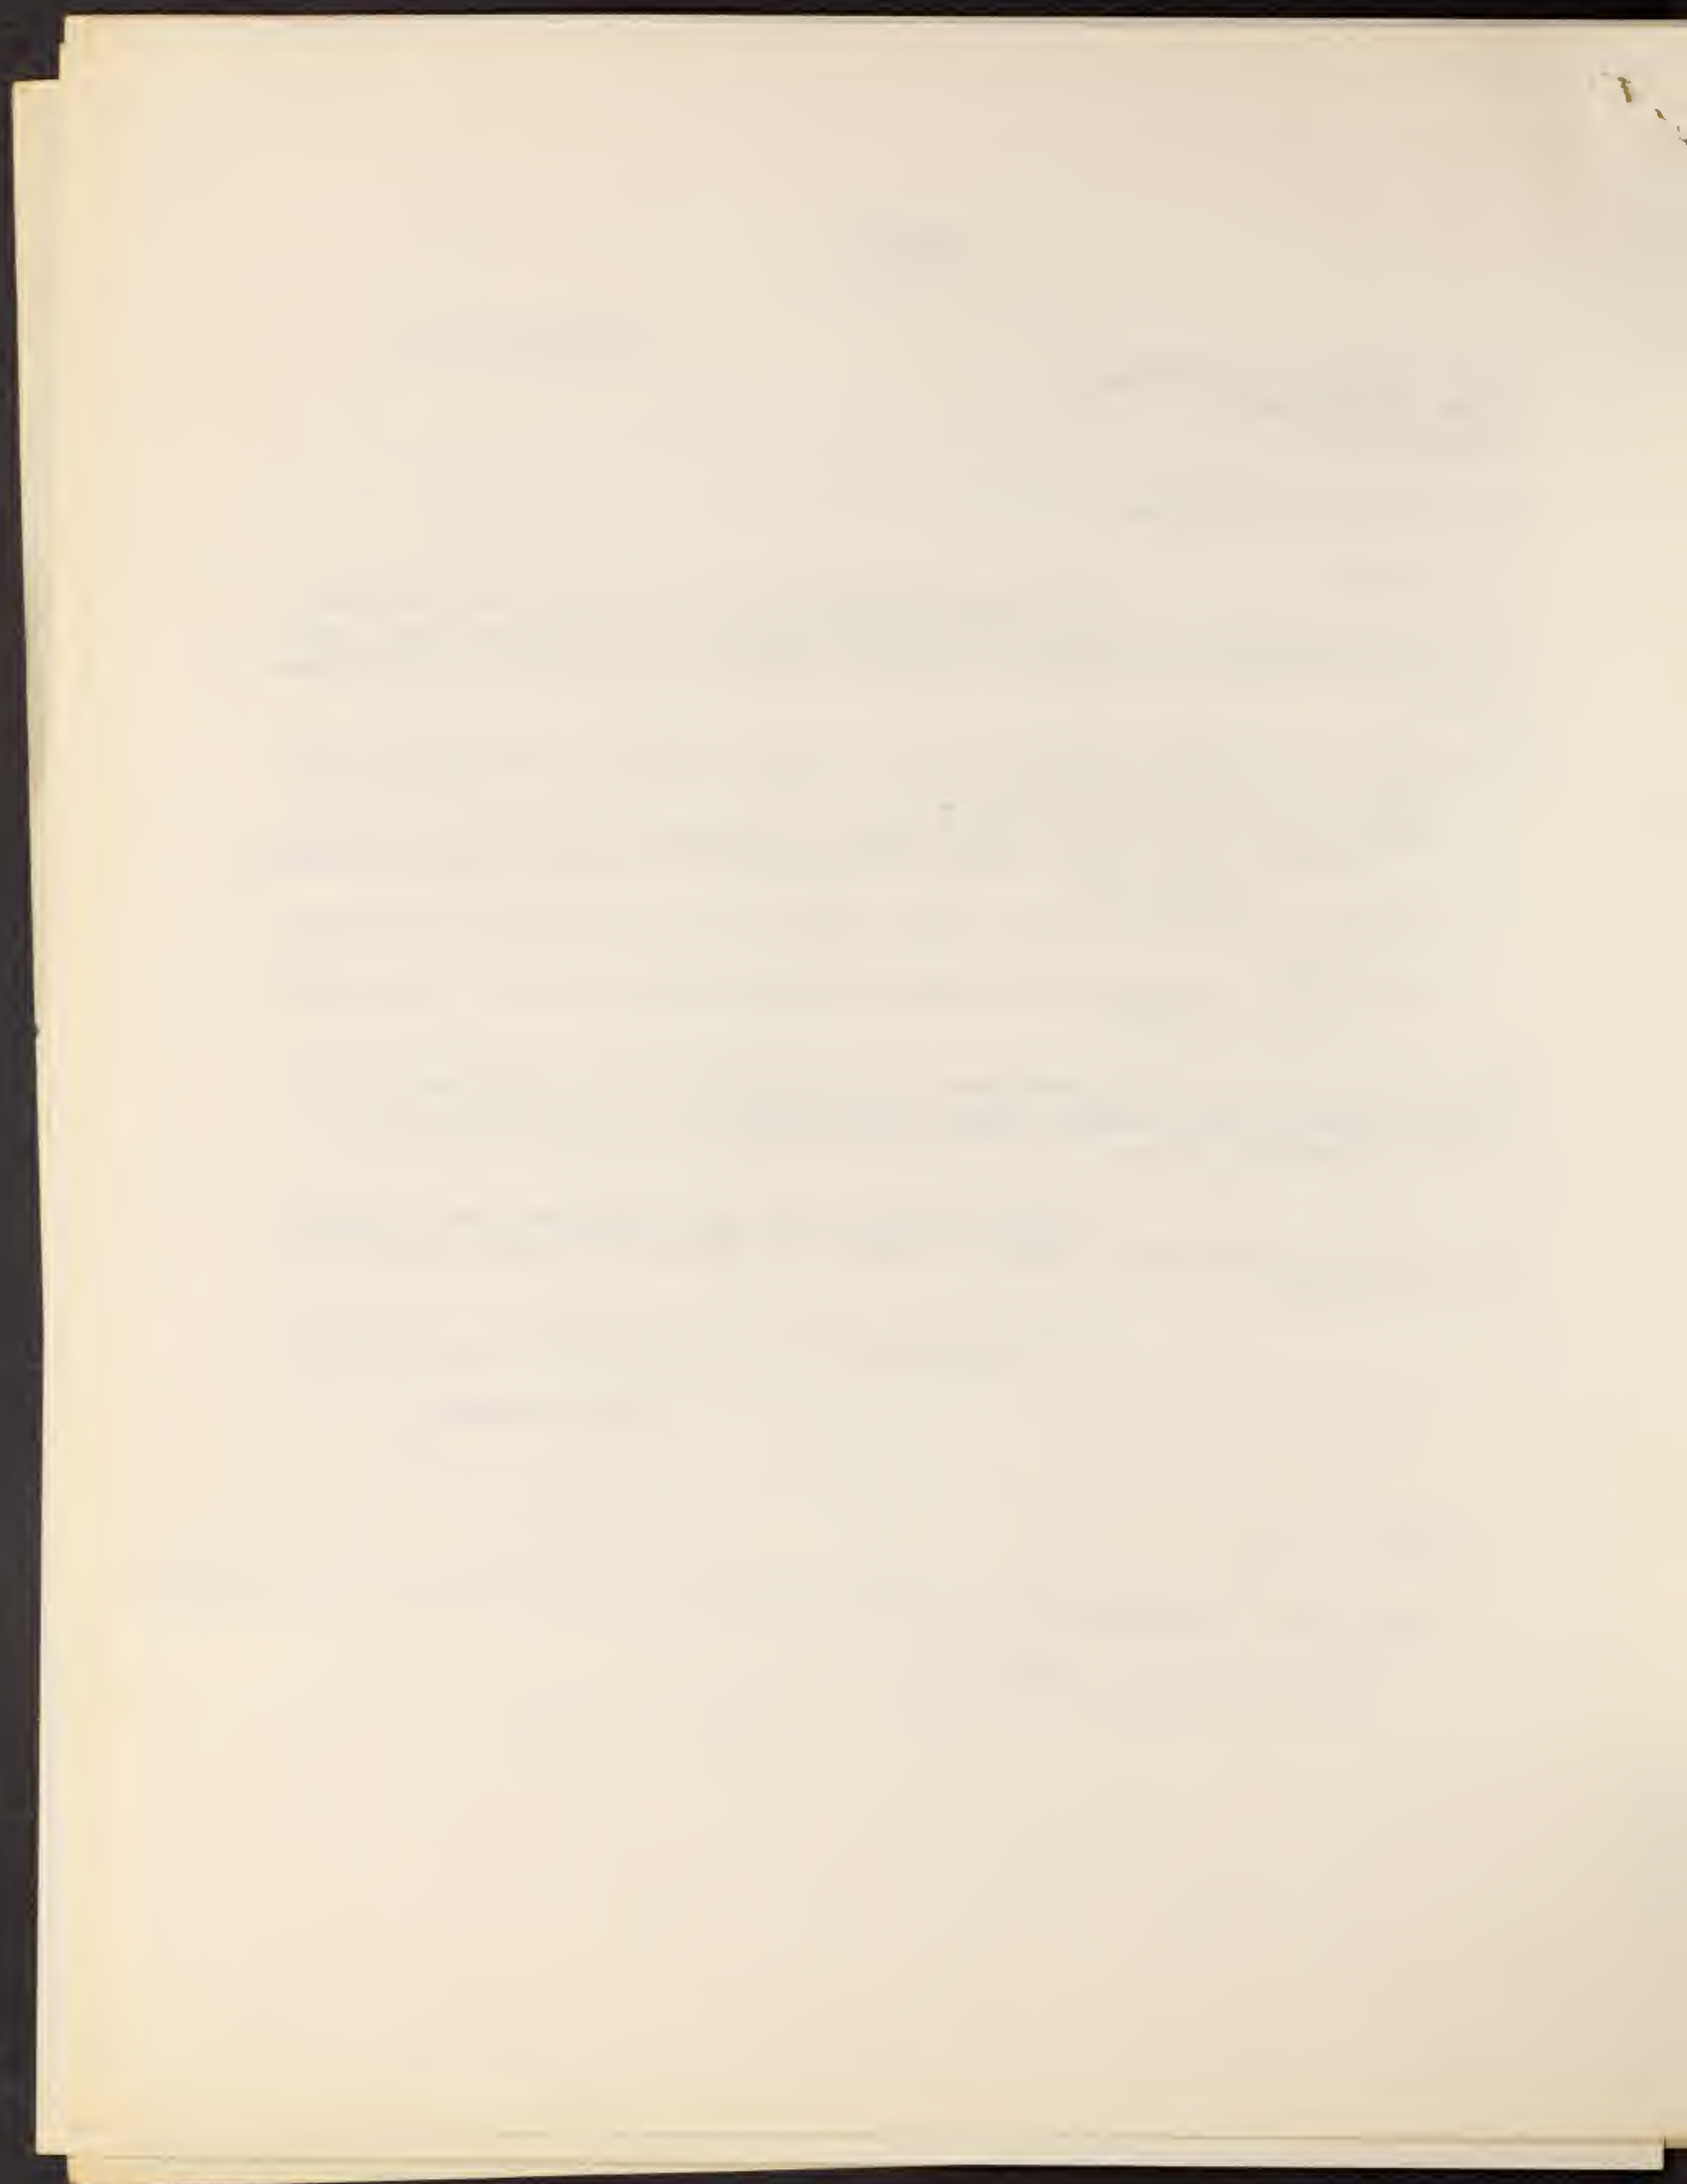

Your assistance in this matter will be appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

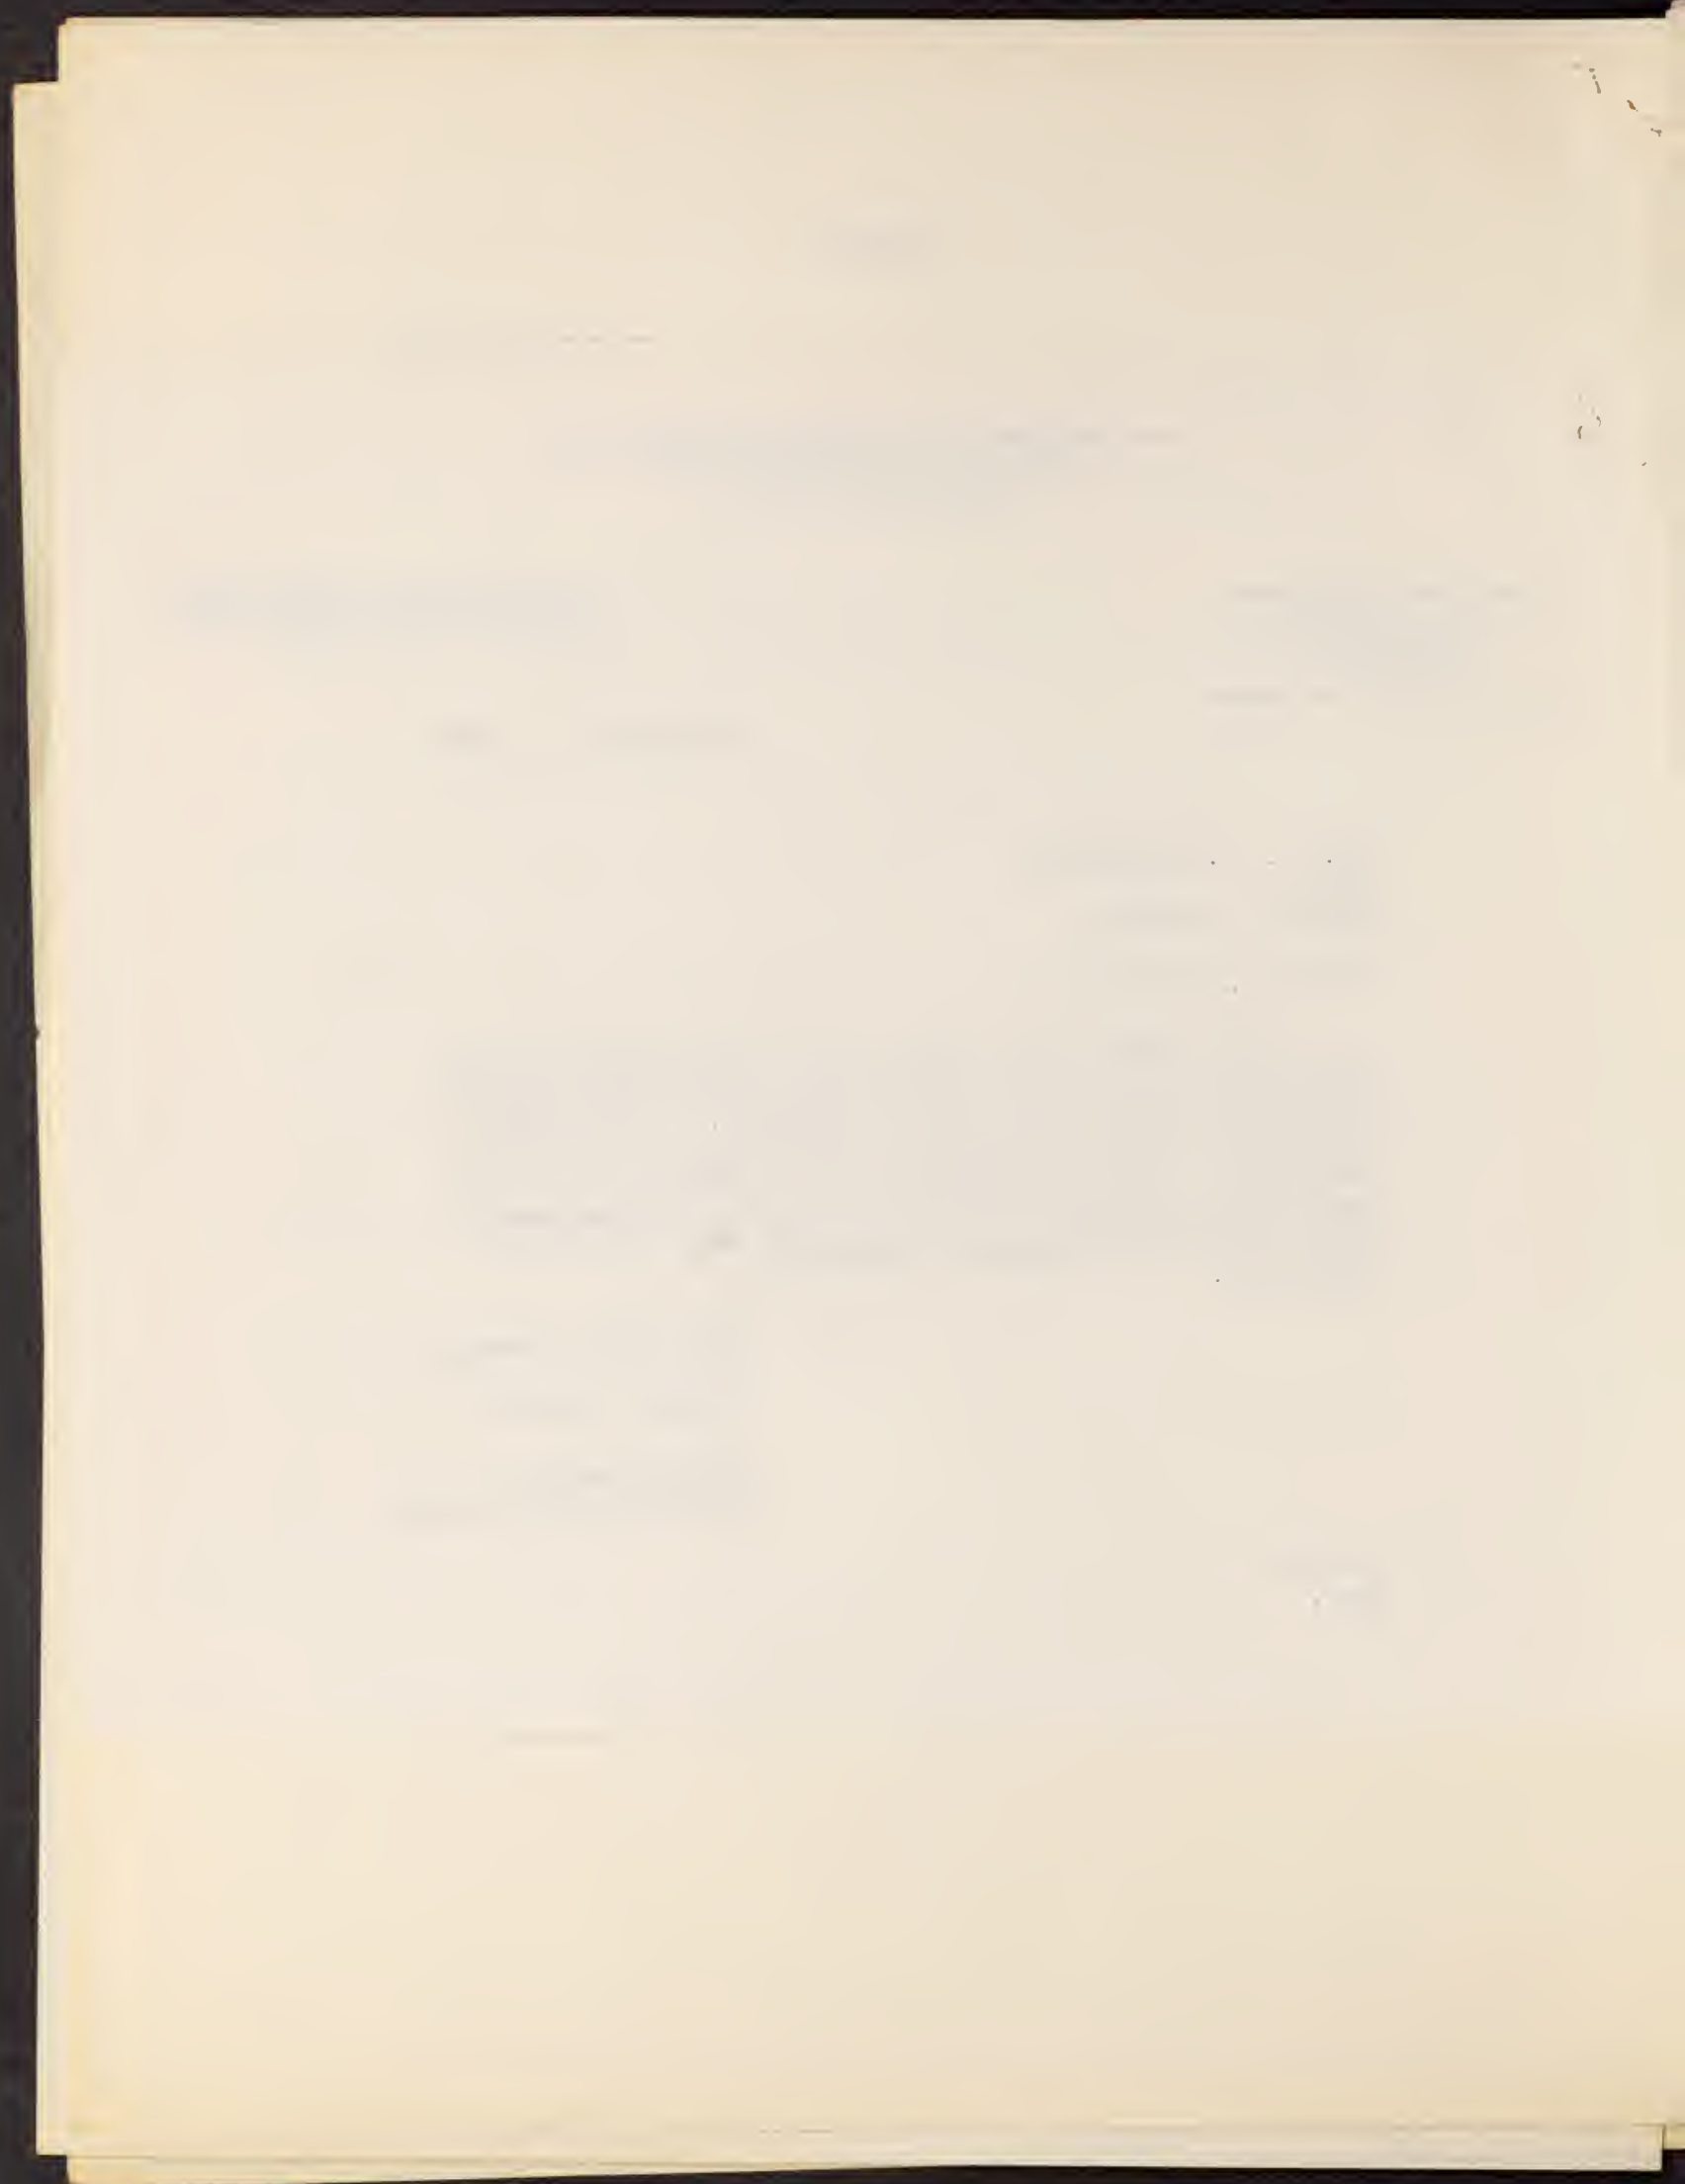

I am sorry that there was a misunderstanding about the author and title of the Lake family genealogy about which you inquired. I am happy to report that information on Margaret Hagerman and Dennis Lucas appears in the genealogy. I am enclosing herewith photocopies of the pertinent pages from A history of my people by Claude N. McMillen.

der, it is spelled differently often in the same document), daughter Margaret, wife of Cornelius Blew (or Blaw), and also mentions grandchildren John Johnson and Elizabeth Kuyk (children of daughter Eleanor), and Mary Hankerson, Nicholas Christopher, and Greetje, children of daughter Sarah Sneider, deceased. Executors: Ryck Sudam and Abraham Quick, of Somerset County, and Jacob Van Dike of Middlesex County, (which would indicate that he still owned property in both counties), witnesses: John Sortorer, Nicholas Golder, and William Patterson.

This failure to indicate her as married, would seem to indicate that daughter Mary, who is known to have been married to Aarent van Courlaer, of the New York grants, was not yet married when his will was made, in 1768. We do, however, find the record of their marriage on Sept. 23, 1743 in the records, in Vol. 12, New Jersey Archives, containing marriage records from 1665-1800.

This Nicholas Lake, who made his will in 1768, which was proved in 1771, has a brother, Thomas Lake, who was also from Somerset County, N. J. His will was dated February 11, 1755, and was probated October 17, 1765. He mentions his wife, Jane; sons, Thomas, Garrett, and John; and daughters, Winifred Hull, Sarah Bettes, Catherine Stuphen, Ann Aller, and Ellen Lake; also a granddaughter, Jane Hull.

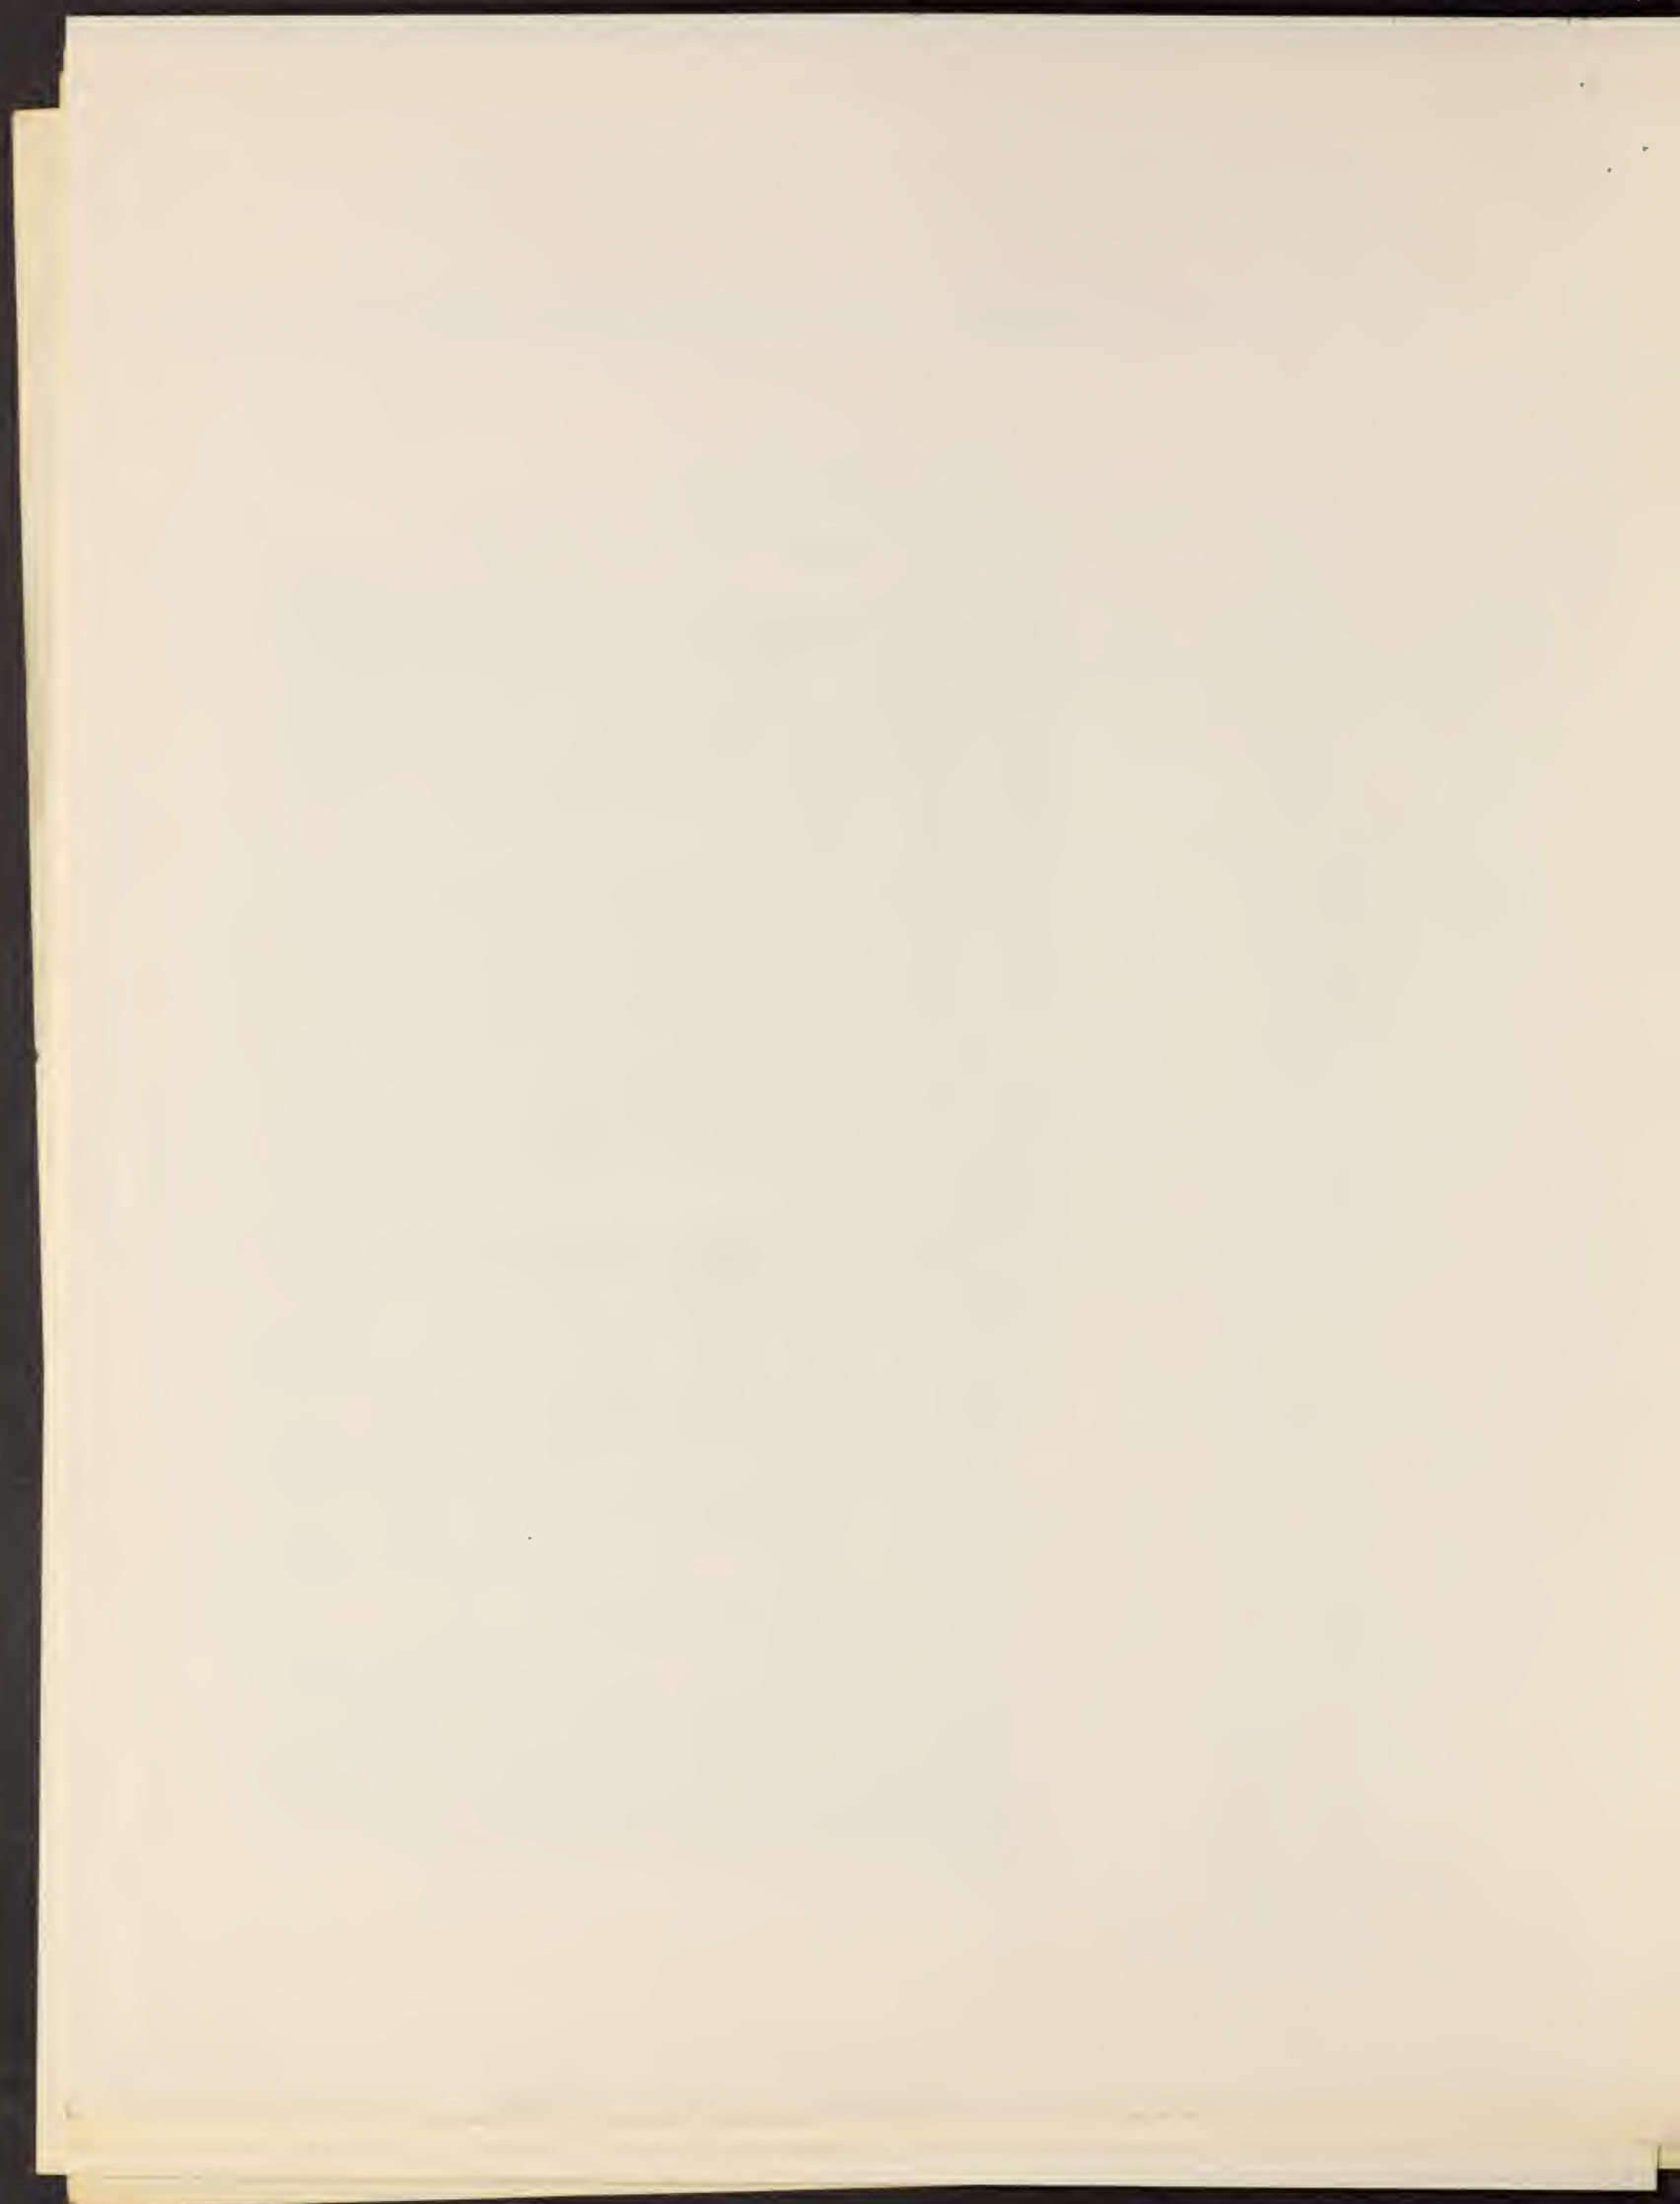

John Lake of New Jersey, who was later interested in the first and smaller New York land grant, had married Margaret Snider, and her brother, Hendrick Snider (Schynider, Snyder, etc.) first married Sarah Lake and after her death, married Jane Lake, both sisters of John Lake, etc.

There is a tradition in the Lake family that John Lake, son of Nicholas, with the Schneiders, went first to Ulster County, New York. At any rate, the record stands, and is as follows:

"Ulster County, New York—Wills, deeds and other records contain references to John Lake who took land patents there in 1749. Lakes . . . also appear in Church Records of Ulster County before 1750."

Also Lakes and Snyders appear in Church records of Ulster County before 1750. However, in both land grants, it is said they were from the Province of New Jersey.

A family named Hegeman went from Long Island to Somerset County, New Jersey. Later to Ulster County, New York. Later Nathaniel Lucas and Margaret Hegerman-Lucas (LUKAS), went to the New York Grants. They had three children, Susanna, Dennis and Altje, bp. Aug. 7, 1778, in the Dutch Reformed Church, but soon after died. Nathaniel Lucas (Lukes), died, and James Lake, the U. E. Loyalist, of John and Margaret Snider-Lake, married her and by her had his family as will appear.

We also find records that Dennis Hagerman, father of Margaret, and his family, also made their way to Canada, following the American Revolution, and where there were further intermarriages with the Lake family.

THE FLITTING, DISPERSION

With the increase in population at Gravesend, and the smallness of the Lake family holdings, it seemed necessary there should be a swarming. An age old process, running back far in the age of man.

The New Jersey bogs, flats, and higher land had begun to be settled by the Dutch, even before the British had taken over. This territory was accessible across the sound, to the Lake family. Daniel, the son of John, i, went to Staten Island and so became one of the early settlers there, and there are remains of his descendants still there.

Others found their way to New Jersey, and settled in various parts. The four sons of John 2, of John i, settled in various parts. These four sons were: i. Jan (or John), bp. Apr. 1688; ii. Daniel, bp. Apr. 25, 1696; iii. Thomas; iv. Nicholas; and v. Mary, m. Cornelius Van Sicklen.

Devereaux Lake, in his book, "LAKE FAMILY HISTORY," says, p. 4-5: "It was natural and logical that the sons of John Lake, the Gravesend settler, were first attracted by the accessible territory along the Coast; and later that his ambitious and venturesome grandsons should follow the line of settlement to the higher and more fertile inland. The four sons of John, Jr., of Gravesend, acquired land in different parts of New Jersey and occupied it. These four sons were Jan (or John), Thomas, Nicholas, and Daniel. They were responsible for the numerous line of descendants in Hunterdon, Middlesex, Somerset, and Monmouth Counties. Jan's son, John, lived in Amwell Township, Hunterdon County, although the senior owned property and probably lived at or near New Brunswick, Middlesex County. Thomas undoubtedly settled in Amwell Township, Hunterdon County; his sons and grandsons were of Bethlehem Township."

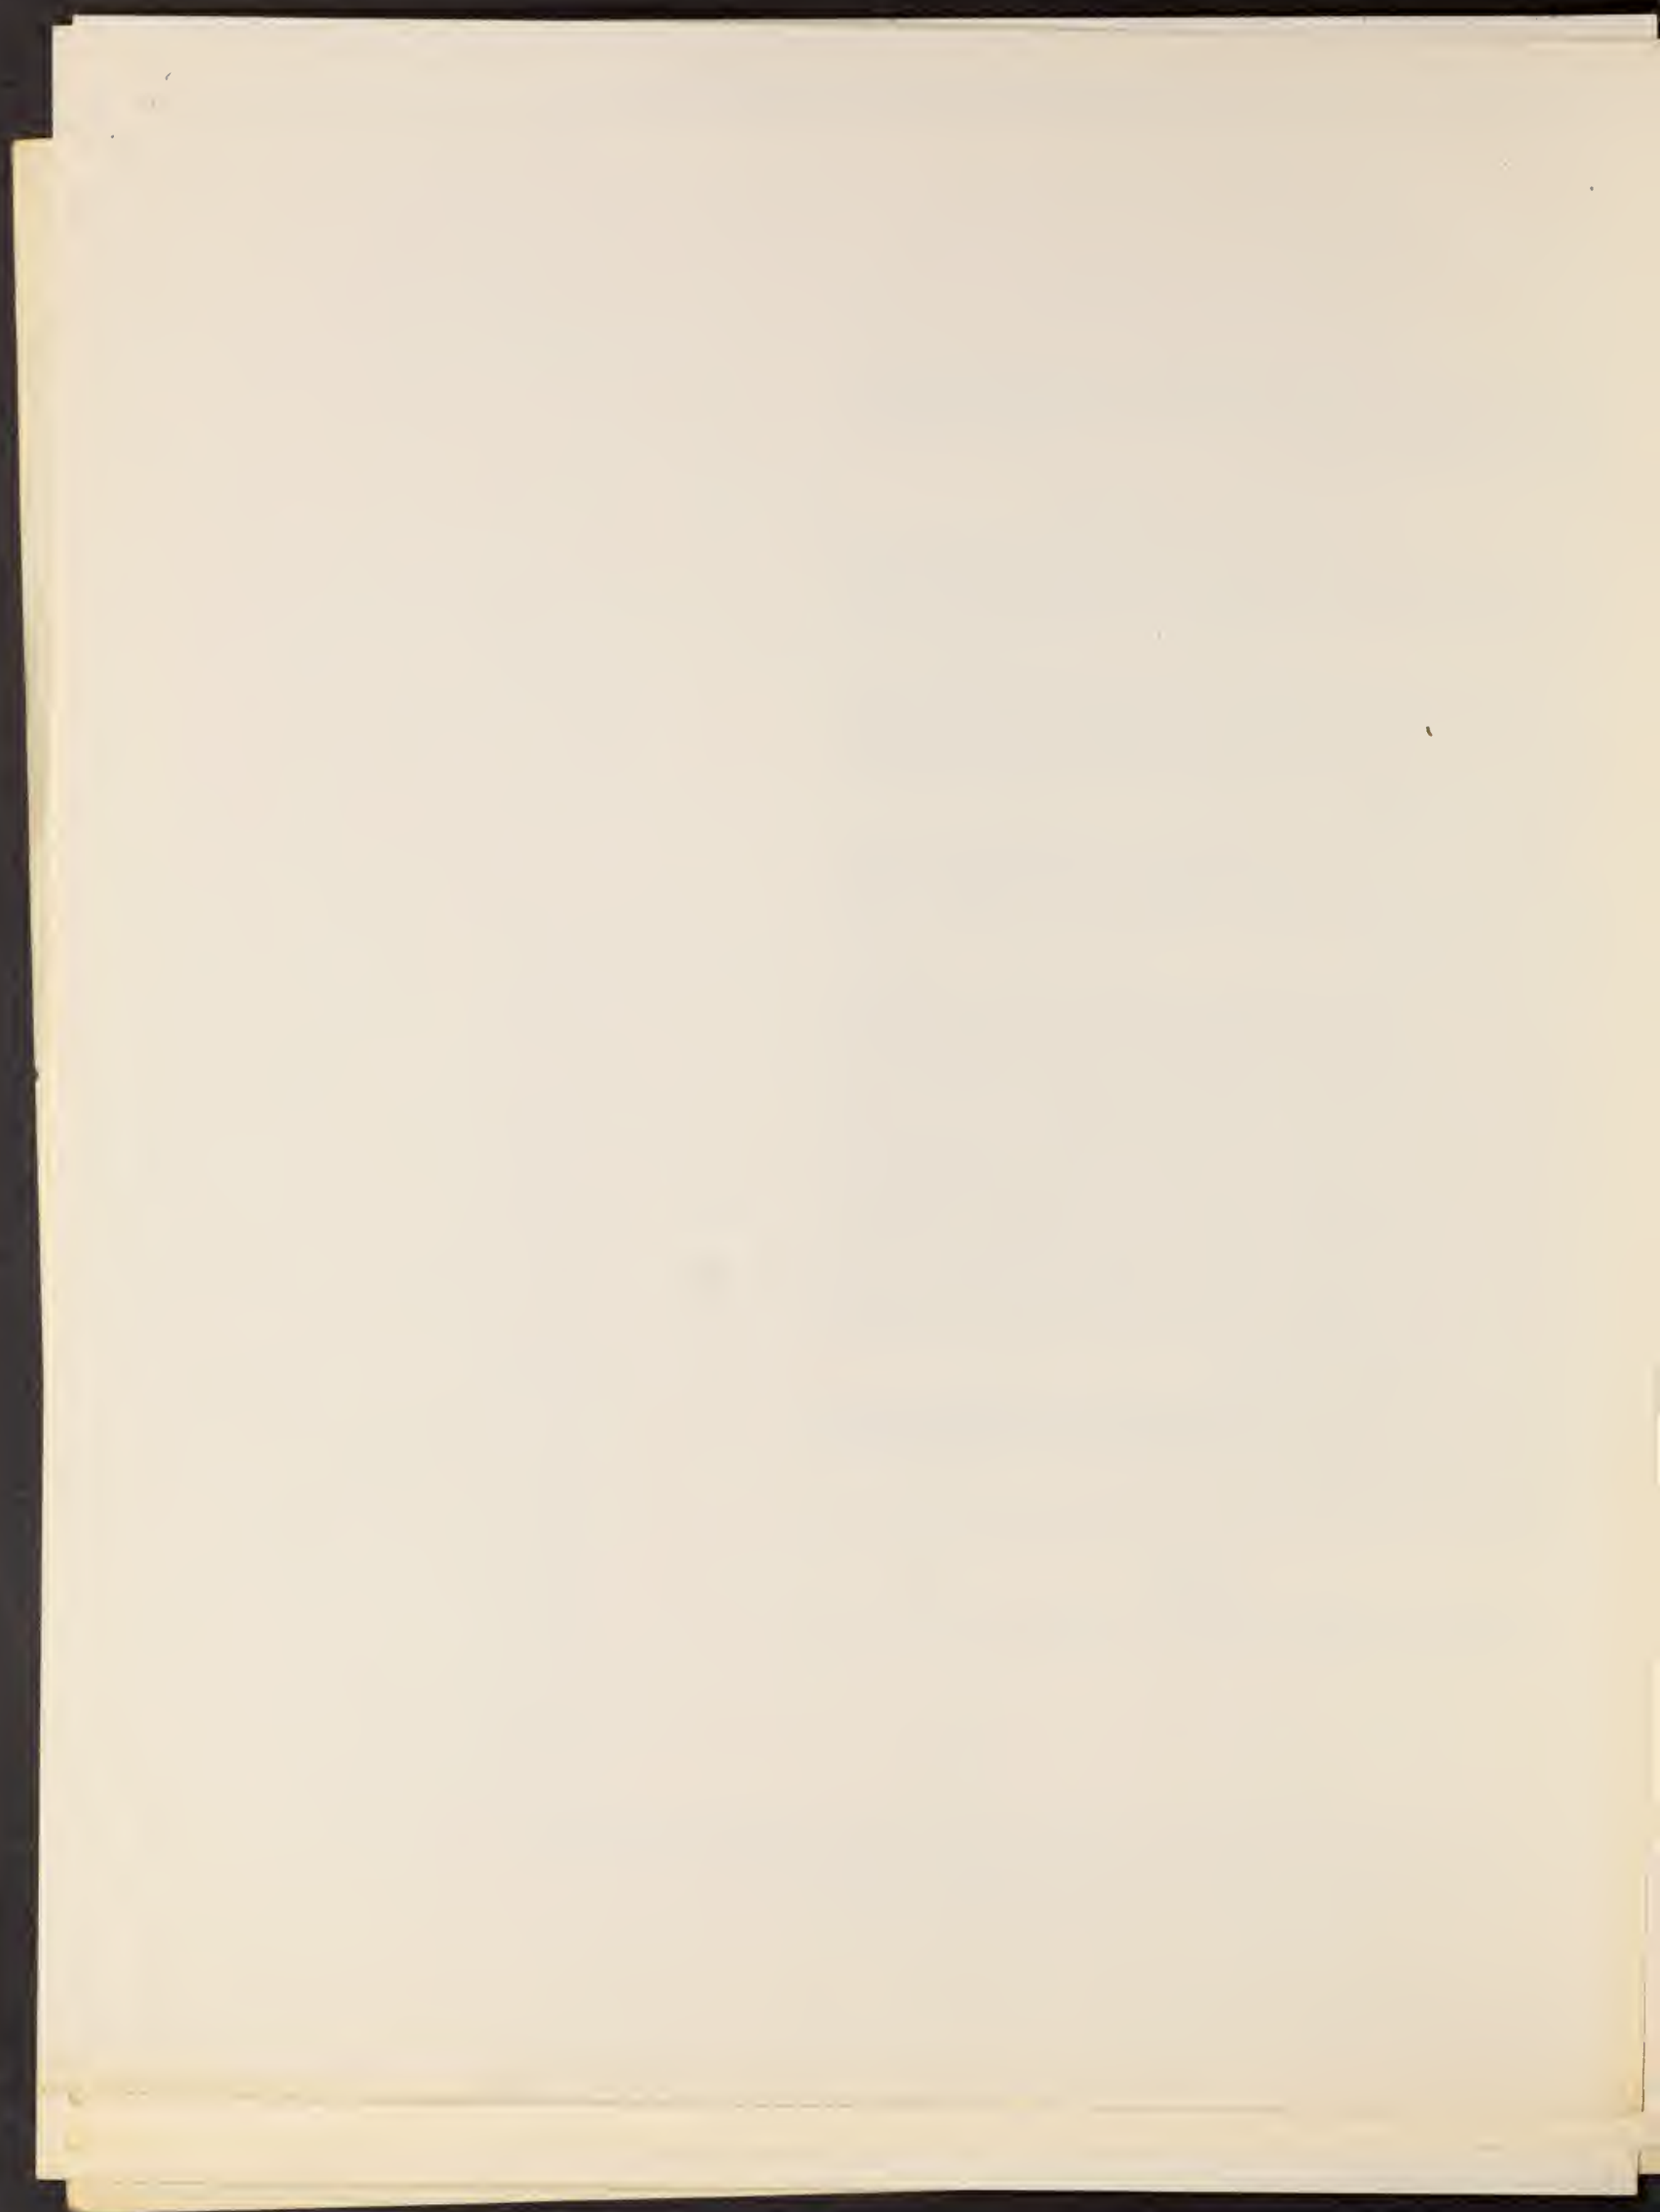

Nichalos, youngest son of John Jr., settled in Middlesex County, but later owned land in both Middlesex and Somerset Counties, as shown by his will which was probated both in Middlesex and Somerset Counties, N. J.

It is with this Nicholas Lake and his descendants we are directly concerned.

"NICHOLAS LAKE, of Somerset & Middlesex Counties, New

IV. James Lake, of John Lake, United Empire Loyalist, of Ernestown twp., Lennox and Addington Co., Canada West, of Nicholas Lake of Middlesex and Somerset counties, New Jersey, of John Lake, Jr., of John Lake and Ann Spicer, of Gravesend, Long Island, N. Y.

IV. James Lake, b. Aug. 6, 1760, in Ulster Co., New York, was taken by his parents to the five thousand acre grant, or patent, in Old Albany Co., N. Y., in 1761, at what became White Creek, New York, where he grew to manhood, helping in the development of the grant made to his father, John Lake, and his uncles, Nicholas Lake, Jr., James Lake (Jacobus), Thomas Lake and Aarent Van Courlaer.

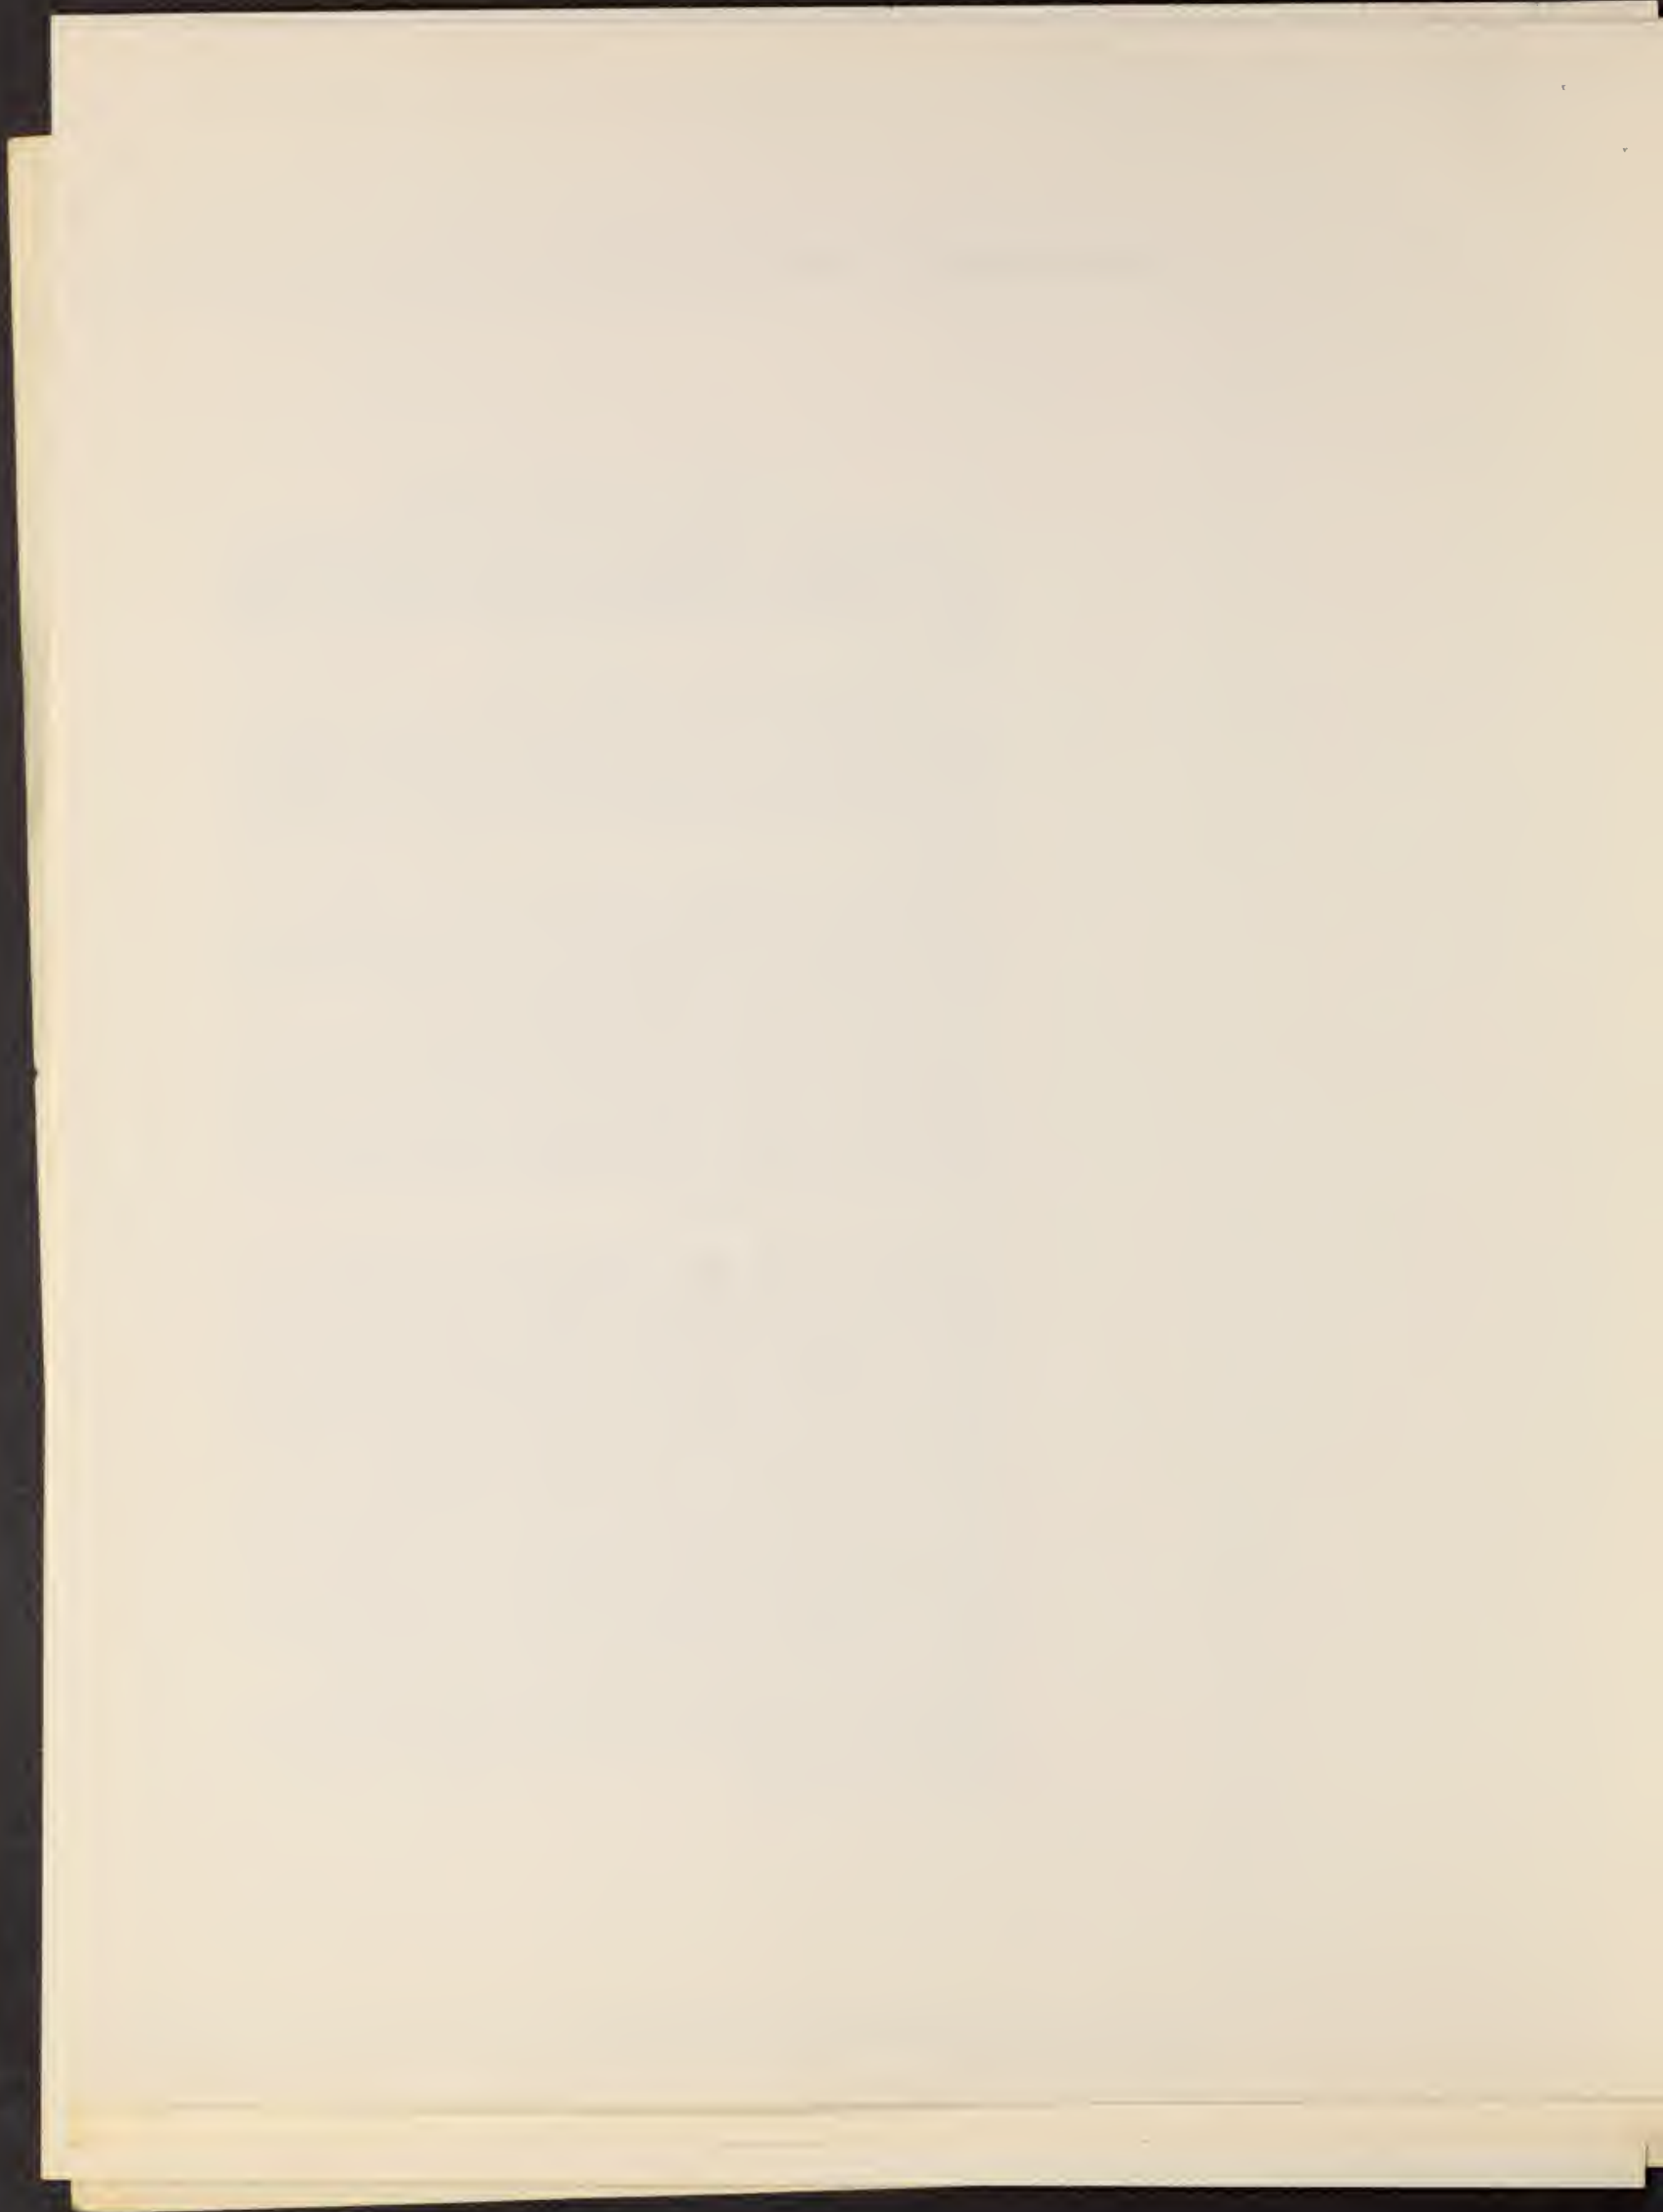

James Lake married Margaret Hagerman-Lucas (Luckas), as it is written both ways, widow of Nathaniel Lucas, and daughter of Dennis Hagerman, (or Hageman) as it was sometimes written. His will was probated in Washington Co., New York, in July 1813, in which he mentions his daughter, Margaret Lake.

When James Lake married Margaret Hagerman-Lucas, widow of Nathaniel Lucas, she had three children; they were, a daughter, Susanna Lucas, b. Sept. 24, (we do not know the year). We have no further record of her. Dennis Lucas, b. Feb. 6, 1781, at White Creek, New York, and a second daughter, Altje, b. 1776, also in New York. She was bp. in the Dutch Reformed Church, Aug. 7, 1778, but died soon afterwards.

Dennis Lucas was b. Feb. 6, 1781, at White Creek, New York, Renssler Co. He m. Mary Ann Stover. She b. May 2, 1786, d. Apr. 1820. He m. 2nd, Christeen Stover, b. Oct. 3, 1799. She d. Jan. 21, 1890. When his nephew, George Lake, of Utah visited him in the early spring of 1871, he found him hiving a swarm of bees, and he seemed in good health. He was buried in the Presbyterian cemetery, by the side of his wives, at Ernestown, Ontario.

When the American Revolution came, James Lake, like his father, John Lake, and his brothers, gave their support to the British cause, was dispossessed, burned out, and so lost all in the colonies and made his way to Canada West, at Ernestown twp., Lennox and Addington Counties, as shown by his petitions for land, as recorded in the Canadian Archives at Ottawa, copies of which have been furnished this writer. They are as follows:

"James Lake and actual settler and U.E. Loyalist, has drawn no lands and prays that lands may be assigned him for self wife and three children, viz: John, Jane and James. (Signed) James Lake." Kingston 3 October 1797.

"I do hereby certify that the petitioner James Lake has a wife and three children and that the three children were born before the year 1789. Kingston 3 Oct. 1797. Robert Clark, C.P."

"The petition of James Lake of Ernest Town sheweth that he joined the Royal Standard in General Burgoyne's Army in the year seventy seven and enlisted as a private soldier in Colonel Peter's Corps and was taken prisoner the same year and remained a prisoner till peace in eighty three and removed to this province in the year ninety three and remained here ever since and has only received 200 acres of land from the Crown etc. . . .

24 January 1809.

(Signed) James Lake."

See her petition for land and record of her family under Benjamine Lake, of John Lake, Jr., p. 255.

4. James Lake, Jr., b. Oct. 7, 1788, at White Creek, Albany Co., N. Y., he m. 1st, Mary Lake, daughter of John Lake, Sr., U.E. Loyalist, and his aunt, about 1796, as their first child, George, was b. 1797, at Ernestown, Upper Canada. She d. Apr. 11, 1815 at Ernestown, Upper Canada.

Mary Lake petitioned for Crown lands as follows:

"The petition of Mary Lake, wife of James Lake (Jr.) of the township of Ernestown sheweth that your petitioner is the daughter of John Lake Sen'r of the township of Ernestown, U.E. Loyalist that she has never received any land etc. Mary Lake."

Mrs. M. S. Robins,
Box 136,
Cypress, Calif., U. S. A.

Dear Mrs. Robins:

Your second letter of 2nd inst. has arrived with a more detailed history of your g. gr. grandparents.

According to my interpretation, Valentine Lucas and his wife, Sarah Perry, were residing in Kingston, or vicinity, at the time of their marriage in 1823. Considering that the first two children, Nathaniel and Calvin, married women of local families--the first in 1851 and the second in 1856--I interpret the date of their departure for Kansas as being after 1856, and before 1863, the year in which the third and fourth children were married to persons whose surnames do not belong to this locality. This is of importance, because our first census, that of 1851, should include details of your family.

The census of 1851 furnishes a great deal of information, such as: given names of all persons, occupation, country of birth, religion, ages next birthday, sex, marital status, attendance at school, deaths or births during 1851, etc., etc.

I tell you all this because there are two families, Lucas and Perry, which coincide almost perfectly with that supplied by you. The Census records of this family, if it can be found, will supply the missing link. If found, and if it fits the family of which I have knowledge, I can supply you with an ancestry going back to the early 1600s in at least a half dozen ancestral lines.

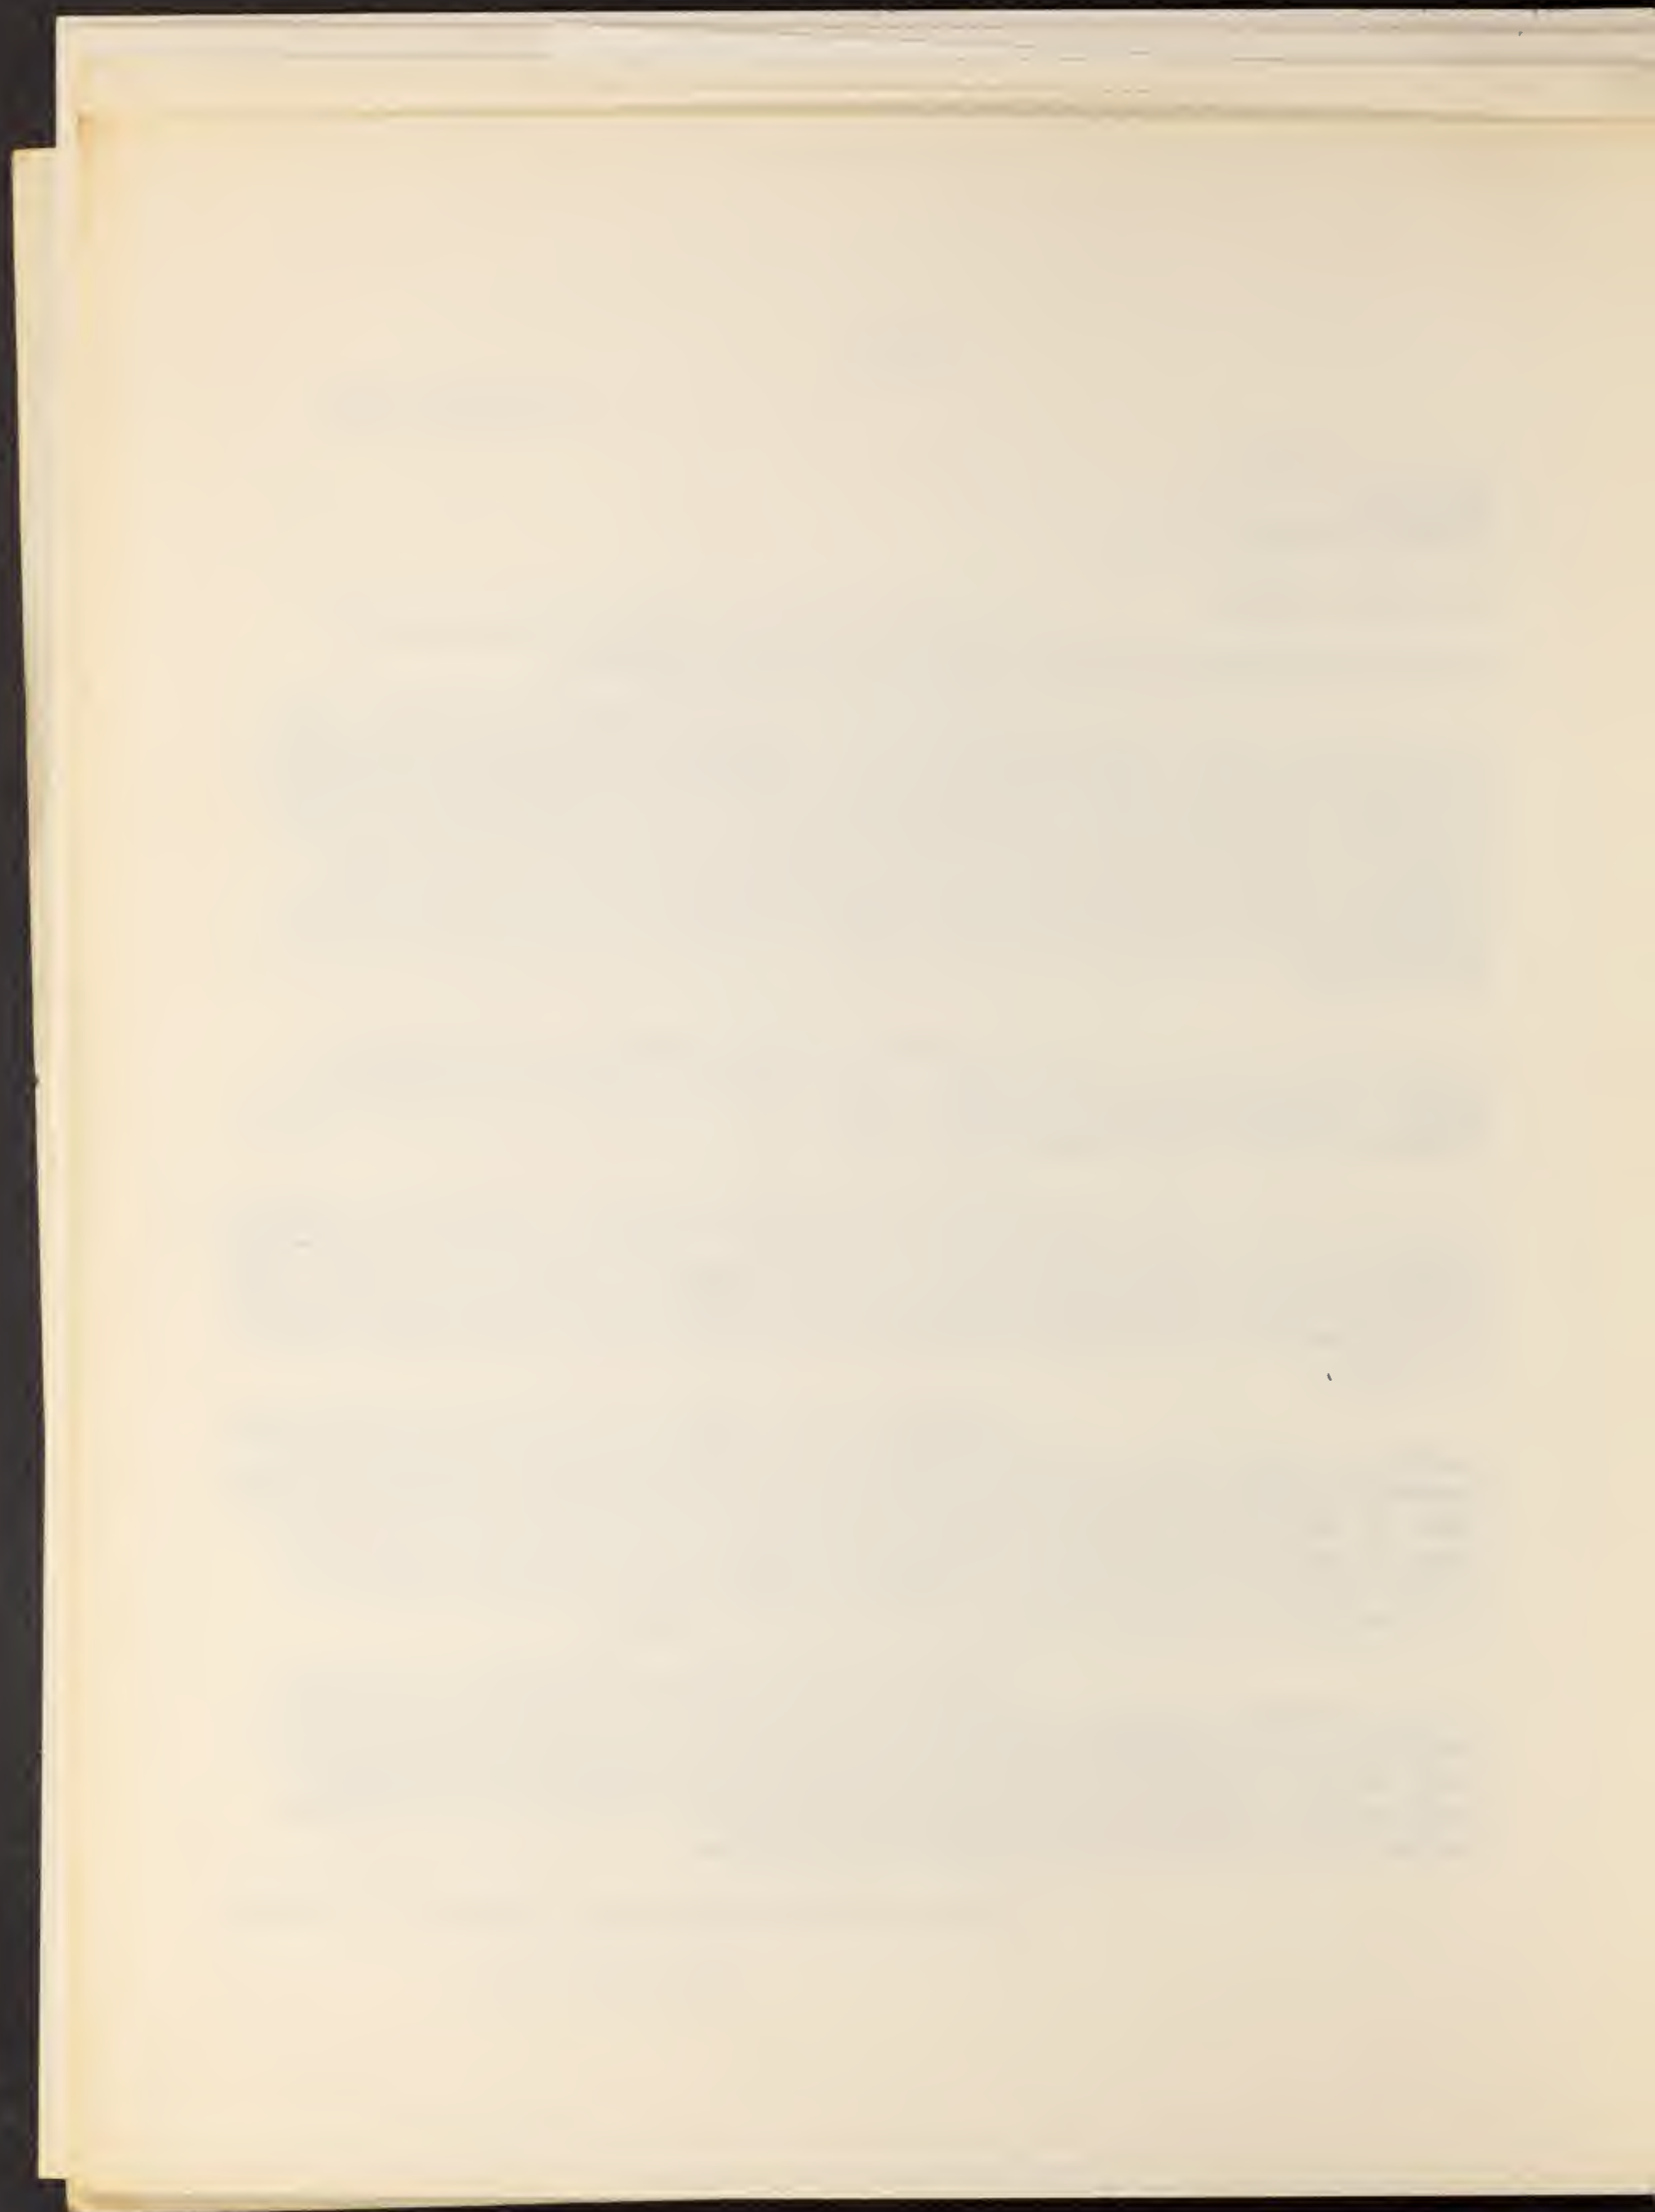

Because of the above, and assuming that you would concur, I have written to my researcher at the Public Archives in Ottawa, our national capital, for a review of the Census of 1851 for the Township of Ernesttown, in which these families resided. The usual charge for this search is at the rate of $2.00 per hour, and should not amount to more than $10.00. This report should be in my hands in about ten days. When it arrives, I shall be in a position to tell you what we will be able to supply.

You mention Kingston as the place of residence of your family. Actually, both these families settled in Ernesttown, the next township west of Kingston. As Kingston is a city of 50,000, and as Ernesttown does not have any large cities or towns, therefore, anyone from Ernesttown being asked in Kansas where they came from they would naturally say Kingston because it is a city and more likely to be known.

If you disagree to the above, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Oct. 2, 1963

Dr. H. C. Burleigh
Bath, Ontario, Canada

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for answering my letter so promptly. Here is all the data that I have concerning Valentine Lucas and his wife Sarah Perry.

Valentine Lucas, born about 1803 in Wales?, died 20 July 1865 in Quindara, Wyandotte Co., Kansas. Married 17 Jan. 1828.

Sarah Perry, b. 24 Sept. 1806 in England?, d. 11 June 1878 in Kansas.

Following are the names of their children and the dates that I have collected so far:

Some of the vital statistics are missing but I gleaned the information that I do have from my grandfather and his family records. If your data concerns any of these relatives of mine I would appreciate any information you might give me. What I most need at the present time is to know the place from which Valentine and Sarah came, where in Wales and England. If you have this data and there is a charge for same please let me know. I appreciate your time and trouble and thank you very much.

Sincerely,

I am enclosing a dime and hope you can use it for stamps.

Dear Sir:

Please don't think that as I have not written for several weeks that I am no longer interested in my genealogy, but due to the holidays I have had so much to do that I am afraid I have put my research to one side. I am sure that you also have been very busy this time of year.

I am wondering if any data was found to identify my family of Valentine Lucas and Sarah Perry with the line in which you are interested? If so, would you please let me know how much I owe and further particulars?

I realize that you are busy and I appreciate very much the time you take to write. I am unsure about how to send what is due, by check or money order I imagine. Maybe you could tell me the best way to handle this matter.

I am anxious to hear from you and hope that data has been uncovered to prove the tie-in with your Lucas and Perry line.

Thank you again for your time and trouble,

Sincerely,

Dr. H. C. Burleigh, M.D.
Bath, Ontario, Canada

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I received your letter this morning and thank you very much for writing. One of my letters to you must have been lost in the mails as I had been expecting you to answer a letter of mine, and when I hadn't heard for several weeks I decided I'd better write.

I am enclosing my personal check for $15.00 and hope that it is negotiable in Canada. If not, please let me know and I'll send the cash. I don't like to send cash in the mails and so hope that my check is acceptable.

I really appreciate the time and effort you have gone to in this matter. Thank you so much for going to Harvey Lucas and copying the bible data.

I am hesitant about imposing on you. If my financial status was such I would say to immediately send me all the pertinent information you have on my Perry and Lucas line. Would it be asking too much for you to send me a certain amount of data periodically so that I might immediately pay you for the time and information in smaller amounts? I am seeking all grandparents on my pedigree. I also need complete family groups, that is, grandparents and their children and vital statistics. I am not gathering family groups of aunts and uncles at this time.

I hope I have made myself clear. I will realize your position if you unable to help me at this time. I can afford about $10.00 a month for the present time.

Incidentally, do you know if the Mary Ann Lucas who married Dennis Lucas had the maiden name of Stover?

Thank you again for your time and trouble. I will be very happy if we can work out some arrangement in this matter. I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

*Mrs. M. S. Roberts

Mrs. M. S. Robins,
Box 186,
Cypress, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Robins:

I was a little surprised to receive your letter after the long silence. In fact, I was hoping that you would not reply, for I could foresee a good deal of assorting, compiling and typing, if I furnished you with all the information I could dig up on your families. I do not have a typist, and even if I had one, all the preparatory work would be mine.

Since your last letter I have unearthed sufficient information to connect the local Lucas family with yours, I hope. Firstly, I asked my researcher in Ottawa to look over the Census of 1851 for the local Township. The information I attach herewith. You will note that it names your family completely. The only thing is that the census taker was not too particular with ages. These are given as age next birthday, and I have found that the ages often do not coincide with bible records. You will note that these people did not live in Kingston. The old home was about 13 miles to the west. By the way, I pity poor little Jane A. for having to live with eight brothers.

I spent some time searching for the family bible of the Lucas family. I found it at last in the home of Harvey Lucas, an old man about seventy. He and his wife live about nine miles northeast of Bath. I called on them one day. They had the bible, but they were just going out to their other farm. So, I made a date for the next morning. I went back and copied every entry in it. There was also a later bible belonging to George Lucas, a half-brother of Valentine. I also copied it, but have not sent it to you, as it does not involve your direct line.

From the entries in the bible it appears that Dennis and Mary Ann Lucas were the parents of Valentine. This, therefore, pushes back the horizon by one generation. It also opens up the channel to further research and older generations. As you can see, Valentine Lucas was born in Ontario. I can also tell you that you will have to go a long way back to find the emigrant from the Old Lands, for it appears that they came here from the Eastern United States.

I am always hesitant about costs in matters like this. As I have told you, I hope, I have built up about 800 files on our early families. These I make available to any one who comes asking to see them. It is another matter when I am asked to search out and compile family charts. It is a very consuming hobby, insofar as time is concerned. I do not know your financial standing or your willingness to pay for service. However, I can tell you that my search in the Census records cost $5.00, and that I consider $15.00 a just price for the time expended in discovering the two attached pages of information.

If you so desire, I can furnish six generations in the Perrys, two or three in most Lucas ancestors. The whole will run into five to ten full pages. Please let me know your thinking on the matter.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Burleigh:-

Received your note of recent date and was pleased to hear that you and Mrs. B. expect to visit the Capital for a "breather". Mother and I are living in 3 small rooms and would be pleased to put you up for your stay if you do not mind "roughing" it. If you do not care to bunch up for the nighttime we will be feeding you at any rate and I am looking forward to a Genealogical conflagration with you. Anything we can do to make your visit pleasant will be done - just let us know your wishes.

I am enclosing two little items which may be useful. Also enclosed is a $ 4.00 Postal for a "peek" at your fine records re the following:- .....

SAMUEL LUCAS of Hungerford Tp., Hastings Co. born 1817; his wife, MARY ( ) LUCAS " " " " " 1819.

- who were the parents of Samuel Lucas? He was b. in Ontario.
- what was his wife's maiden name? Who were her parents?

JAMES YOUNG of Hungerford Tp., b. ~~1798~~; Who were his parents?

Thank you for the note on Maria, w. Oliver Crouse - The Old Cemetery, Camden East. (but I always supposed that she was buried with her husband in the old Jones Cemetery at Tyendinaga!) Is there a stone at Camden East? I am anxious to know where you obtained the data.

Re the PRESTON angle to my mysterious NESTOR family - and the surname of Maria Crouse (above) - I find that the names of Richard Hitchen's children all find a counterpart in the family of Maria and Oliver Crouse. I also find that the names of the Preston's recorded at the Archives are very much similar - also I took note of Preston names written in old-fashioned hand and they could easily be mistaken for "Nestor". I do thank you for your deductions - You are a real thorough Genealogist and I do believe that you have hit upon the solution to my "Nestor" problem. Incidentally, the Preston's were neighbors of the Crouse's in the Mohawk Valley in early pre-Rev. times.

Talk about luck! I took courage to phone all the FAIRBAIRN names in the local phone book and discovered a person about 6 blocks away who was writing up the family and gave me my line back to 1709 and many interesting details - I am descended from ROBERT FAIRBAIRN of Camden Tp. b. 1787 who was lost to the local branch until now. Makes life worth living doesn't it? (excuse English please)

Aims and Objects of our Society and the part the Government could play in fostering interest in the subject as part of our Canadian culture.

Have you heard from Freeman or Demorest lately? I confess that I have had to let the Genealogical Society drop temporarily due to other interests but now I have my books and desk here and will be moving my Typewriter and other records down to my Apartment to-morrow I hope to make up for lost time this winter.

Best regards,

C. G. Crouse
Box 1143.

P.S. My Robert Fairbairn was listed in the 1861 Census but does not appear in '71 so he must have died in the interval. Would give $2.00 for date of death. He belonged to the old 5 Con. Camden Presbyterian Church - but no marker is in the Church graveyard on the 5th.

the and objects of our country and our people and government could not be forgotten in the subject of our Canadian relations.

Have you heard from Thomas or Margaret lately? I would like to hear from the General and family from time to time.
We are all well here. I have no news and have not will be coming to the United States soon as I can.
I am to return - hope to see you in the fall. Love to all.

Yours truly,
J. C. Brown

Dennis Lucas was born Feb. 6, 1781, in the Township of White Creek, Washington Co., N. Y., where his father, Nathaniel Lucas, died when he was four days old. When he was 12 years of age, his uncle, Joseph, having had possession of his father's place and the care of the family in the meantime, he with his step-father, James Lake, and the rest of the family, settled in the 4th Concession of Ernesttown. At the age of 21 he married Mary Ann Stover, born May 27, 1786, then sixteen years of age, dwelling for two years near his home, and afterwards until her death, Apr. 4, 1820, in the 3<sup>d</sup> Concession, in the same Township. They had seven children:

1. Nathaniel (b. Apr. 2, 1803)
2. Valentine
3. John (b. Sept 10, 1810)
4. Joseph
5. Sarah
6. Hannah
7. Mary Ann

He then married Christina Stover, born Oct. 30, 1799, sister of his first wife, and still living, 1880. Their six children were:

8. George
9. James Lake
10. Hiram Perry
11. Dennis Albert
12. Jane Amy
13. Martha Christina

They were religious people, and he a member of the Methodist Church for upwards of 60 years. Their home was a home for the Methodist preachers for many years. As he drew near the end of his life his prospects for heaven became increasingly bright, and he died in great peace Aug. 30, 1877, in the 96th year of his age, and was buried beside his wife in the Lutheran burying ground about 3 miles distant from his home.

Napanee Couple<sup>3-7-38</sup> Wedded 50 Years

NAPANEE, March 7—On March 7, 1888, Miss Elzie Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lucas of Moscow was united in marriage to Joseph H. Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas of Ernestown, the marriage being solemnized in Moscow by Rev. C. L. Thompson.

Residents of Napanee for the past nine years, the golden wedding anniversary was very quietly observed today at their home on Bridge Street. Mrs. Lucas has not been in the best of health for some time but is able to be about the house. The attendants at the wedding 50 years ago were the late Dr. Vrooman and Mrs. Henry Huffman.

The first 26 years of their wedded life were spent on the farm in Ernestown, after which they went to Moscow where they resided for 15 years after which they came to Napanee. Mr. Lucas has one brother, Dennis N. Lucas of Selby, and Mrs. Lucas is the sole surviving member of her family.

On coming to Napanee they affiliated with Trinity United Church. Throughout his lifetime Mr. Lucas has always been a pronounced Liberal.

Their many friends in Napanee as well as in their former home districts of Ernestown and Moscow extend congratulations to this well-known and highly honored couple on their golden wedding anniversary.
